W. Gerald White is the replacement player for Scott Duncan (Russia), who has not responded.

The retreats for the Russian A Ber, and the English F Liv are due with the "Fall 1910" moves, which may be made conditional on the retreat or annihilation of the units (since each unit had but one space to retreat to).

MU is opening up a game of Princeps, the varient Diplomacy game of conquest set in 138, with seven players as "Proconsuls" and various barbarian leaders that run around and cause havoc.

Rules and maps are free to players, and there is no game fee.

To enter, simply tell me you want to play.

PRINCEPS

Maps and rules are going out to those who expressed interest in playing Princeps. To begin the game I need "country preference lists" from everyone interested in playing. In case we are one short, I will try to find a player. If I do not, the game will start with one country in CD.

Lists should be in to me by 4 November 1971.

3 July 1972.

I have a note from England, Sid Jolly, asking that this game be ended, declaring France and England winners because they hold a majority of the units on the board and a majority of the supply centers. I think that the only fair thing is to poll the players and if all players decide to end the game, then it will end, with France winner with 11, England and Turkey tied for Second with 8 each, and Russia last with 7. I must have agreement for this from all players. The results of this poll will be announced along with the "Winter 1911" builds and removals.
